Save 10% on Selected RIGOL Test Equipment and Options

CEO's Corner

Put your year-end test budget to work with more measurement capability for less. Through Q4 2026, save 10% on qualifying RIGOL hardware and 10% on select software options across a range of RF and microwave instruments, oscilloscopes, and waveform generators. Whether you are expanding your lab or upgrading an existing test setup, this promotion offers a timely opportunity to move your next project forward.

Saelig Company Incorporated is an authorized distributor of RIGOL products. Contact our team to discuss your application, identify qualifying instruments and options, and request a quote. From RF characterization to circuit debugging and signal generation, we can help you explore the RIGOL solutions covered by this promotion.

Test Equipment and Options
Q4 2026 Promotion | Saelig Company, inc.

RF and Microwave Measurement

Give your RF bench the tools to investigate signals, characterize components, and verify designs. The promotion includes qualifying hardware and select software options for these RIGOL series:

RIGOL RSA5000 Series — Real-time spectrum analysis for demanding RF and microwave applications.

RIGOL RSA6000 Series — Advanced spectrum analysis for deeper visibility into complex signals and RF environments.

RIGOL DNA5000 Series — Vector network analysis for RF and microwave design, characterization, and testing.

RIGOL DNA6000 Series — Advanced VNA performance for demanding high-frequency measurements.

RIGOL DSG5000 Series — High-performance signal generation for RF development, testing, and verification.

Ask Saelig which hardware configurations and software options qualify for the 10% savings.

Oscilloscopes for Debugging and Design

Upgrade the instrument at the center of your bench. Qualifying RIGOL DHO1000 and DHO4000 Series hardware and select software options are included in the Q4 promotion RIGOL DHO1000 Series — High-resolution oscilloscopes that provide greater measurement detail for everyday debugging and design work.

RIGOL DHO4000 Series — Advanced oscilloscope performance for engineers who need more capability and flexibility from their bench instruments.

Contact Saelig to discuss your measurement requirements and obtain promotional pricing on an eligible configuration.

Waveform Generation for Precise Testing

Build the signals your application requires with RIGOL waveform-generation solutions. Save 10% on qualifying hardware and select software options for these series:

RIGOL DG5000 Pro Series — Advanced arbitrary waveform

RIGOL DG6000 Series — High-performance waveform generation generation for demanding design, test, and verification applications.

for precise and flexible signal creation.

Whether you are planning a new test setup or adding signal-generation capability to an existing bench, ask Saelig about eligible instruments and options.

Make Your Q4 Budget Go Further

Planning an instrument upgrade or expanding your test capabilities? Take advantage of 10% savings on qualifying RIGOL hardware and 10% on select software options through Q4 2026. Contact Saelig for pricing, availability, and promotion details, including eligibility for your selected models and options.
